The latest advance in add-on services to the carpet cleaning industry.

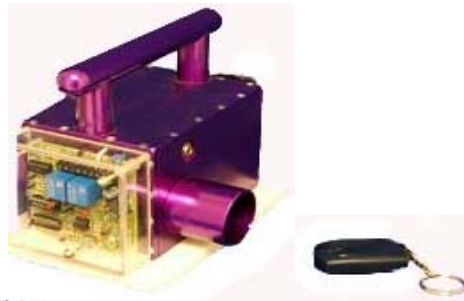

Just like your carpet, your air duct system is a gathering place for dust particles, animal dander, lint, and other types of dust particles that normally accumulate in a home. The facts are: The average 6-room house accumulates 40 pounds of dust every year. As all this grime and dirt collects in your humid air ducts, serious health hazards could very well develop. Especially affecting those with respiratory elements such as allergies or asthma.

It was stated by the EPA that on an average, air found indoors is 70 times more polluted than the air from outdoors. While your children inhale much more air, per unit, of their body weight, with every breath, and with them being closer to the floor where contaminated concentrations are more serious, they are more likely to be affected by the pollution that gathers in the indoor air rather than outside.

Consider all this, and note the fact that 60 - 90% of most people spend their time indoors, and you can easily see the importance of the Duct Wizard Air Dust System. This system's process completely removes all dust, bacteria, and odor from your air ducts. Not only does the vent cleaning drastically improve the quality of the air in your house. It also restores capacity and efficiency to your air condition system, which reduces running time and therefore saves you money on your heating and cooling bill.

Vaportek odor control systems provide immediate odor neutralization in situations where other methods may fail. These incorporate natural, non-toxic essential oils and odor neutralizing compounds in patented membrane cartridges that breathe a penetrating dry vapor into the air. In like fogging and ozone treatments, Vaportek products can be used in occupied structures. They will not harm people, plants, animals, affect fabrics, rubber, adhesives, or other materials and surfaces. The systems have been proven effective in fire and flood restoration, industrial and healthcare facilities -- even in eliminating difficult-to-remove urine odors.
